

Reflexión

Anote las cuatro ideas que considere más importantes o útiles acerca del proceso de observación.

The page features a faint background illustration of a person wearing a lab coat and a cap, possibly a scientist or researcher, standing next to a large rectangular box. The box is intended for the student to write their reflections on the observation process. The illustration is very light and serves as a subtle guide for the activity.